GUEST PRESENTER

Dr. Calvin D. Jamison

UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS AT DALLAS

LEADING DURING CHALLENGING TIMES AND SOCIAL CHANGES

Dr. Calvin D. Jamison serves as vice president for facilities & economic development at The University of Texas at Dallas. His office is responsible for overseeing facilities management, economic development, construction, real estate, and auxiliary services. In a time of tremendous growth for the University, he continues to lead more than $2 billion in development and the addition of more than 14 million new and renovated square feet to the campus, including a mixed-use development called Northside, also known as "Comet Town."

Dr. Jamison is the President of the National Forum for Black Public Administrators (NFBPA), immediate past president of the Texas Association of State Senior College and University Business Officers (TASSCUBO), and a member of its National Board of Directors. He has held membership in the National Association of College and University Business Officers (NACUBO), the Research Universities Council, and the Southern Association of College and University Business Officers (SACUBO). Dr. Jamison has also served as a past president of the Richmond Arts Council, past chair Leadership Metro Richmond, and past chair of the Virginia Tourism Corporation Board of Directors where he received their Man of Vision Award. He received the Distinguished Alumni Service Award from Virginia Tech, and he was appointed to the Board of Visitors of Virginia Tech by the Governor of Virginia. Most recently, Dr. Jamison received the "Marks of Excellence Award" (highest honor) from the National Foundation of Black Public Administrators (NFBPA). He holds bachelor's, master's and doctorate degrees from Virginia Tech.
